January 2024

The House of Healing Foundation Board of Directors extends its gratitude to immediate past President, Amy Kato, for her faithful service, and welcomes new President, Pastor Tim Davis.

Letter From The New President

Friends of the House of Healing!

Greetings & Happy New Year!

It is my honor to introduce myself to you as the new President of the House of Healing Board of Directors. My name is Tim Davis and I serve as the Senior Pastor of Bethel Baptist Church in New Caney, Texas, USA. My wife, Julie, and I have three biological daughters, one sponsored daughter in Guatemala, and one son-in-law. Julie, my girls, and I have all grown significantly in our walk with the Lord through serving with the House of Healing for many years. The Lord has allowed me to serve alongside Teri since 2009, and as a Board Member since 2019. We love our Guatemalan friends and family, and we're thankful that you do as well.

I am so thankful for our Board of Directors. Under the direction of my predecessor, President Amy Kato, our Board has made fantastic progress in every area of the organization. Bringing better coordination between our ministry partners here in the US and in Guatemala has been a huge blessing. The Board and our Guatemalan Staff has provided greater transparency, stronger teamwork, and clearer vision. I am so thankful for the joyful dedication of our Board members and staff, and I am eternally grateful for Amy's leadership.

During my tenure, I hope to continue building on the godly leadership of our shared past. I also seek to assist each of you as we continue following the Lord to grow His glory and His kingdom. When I can be of service to you please do not hesitate to contact me.

Prayerfully Yours, Tim "Tomate"
